

75 STAT.]

PUBLIC LAW 87-195—SEPT. 4, 1961

of law repealed by section 642(a) shall continue in full force and effect until modified by appropriate authority.

(b) Wherever provisions of this Act establish conditions which must be complied with before use may be made of authority contained in, or funds authorized by, this Act, compliance with, or satisfaction of, substantially similar conditions under Acts listed in section 642(a) or Acts repealed by those Acts shall be deemed to constitute compliance with the conditions established by this Act.

(c) Funds made available pursuant to provisions of law repealed by section 642(a) (2) shall, unless otherwise authorized or provided by law, remain available for their original purposes in accordance with the provisions of law originally applicable thereto, or in accordance with the provisions of law currently applicable to those purposes.

(d) No provision of this Act shall affect, or be deemed to affect, except as the President may determine, the agency within the Department of State known as the Peace Corps, nor any of the functions, offices, personnel, property, records, and funds available thereto on the date prior to the effective date of this Act, pending the enactment of legislation for the Peace Corps or the adjournment of the first session of the Eighty-seventh Congress, whichever is earlier.

SEC. 644. DEFINITIONS.—As used in this Act—

(a) "Agency of the United States Government" includes any agency, department, board, wholly or partly owned corporation, instrumentality, commission, or establishment of the United States Government.

(b) "Armed Forces" of the United States means the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard.

(c) "Commodity" includes any material, article, supply, goods, or equipment used for the purposes of furnishing nonmilitary assistance.

(d) "Defense article" includes—

(1) any weapon, weapons system, munition, aircraft, vessel, boat, or other implement of war;

(2) any property, installation, commodity, material, equipment, supply, or goods used for the purposes of furnishing military assistance;

(3) any machinery, facility, tool, material, supply, or other item necessary for the manufacture, production, processing, repair, servicing, storage, construction, transportation, operation, or use of any article listed in this subsection; or

(4) any component or part of any article listed in this subsection; but shall not include merchant vessels or, as defined by the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (42 U.S.C. 2011), source material, byproduct material, special nuclear material, or atomic weapons.

68 Stat. 923.

(e) "Defense information" includes any document, writing, sketch, photograph, plan, model, specification, design, prototype, or other recorded or oral information relating to any defense article or defense service, but shall not include Restricted Data and formerly Restricted Data as defined by the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended.

(f) "Defense service" includes any service, test, inspection, repair, training, training aid, publication, or technical or other assistance, including the transfer of limited quantities of defense articles for test, evaluation, or standardization purposes, or defense information used for the purposes of furnishing military assistance.

(g) "Excess defense articles" mean the quantity of defense articles owned by the United States Government which is in excess of the mobilization reserve at the time such articles are dropped from inventory by the supplying agency for delivery to countries or international organizations as grant assistance under this Act.

(h) "Function" includes any duty, obligation, power, authority, responsibility, right, privilege, discretion, or activity.

(i) "Mobilization reserve" means the quantity of defense articles determined to be required, under regulations prescribed by the President, to support mobilization of the Armed Forces of the United States Government in the event of war or national emergency.

(j) "Officer or employee" means civilian personnel and members of the Armed Forces of the United States Government.

(k) "Services" include any service, repair, training of personnel, or technical or other assistance or information used for the purposes of furnishing nonmilitary assistance.

(l) "Surplus agricultural commodity" means any agricultural commodity or product thereof, class, kind, type, or other specification thereof, produced in the United States, either publicly or privately owned, which is in excess of domestic requirements, adequate carry-over, and anticipated exports for United States dollars, as determined by the Secretary of Agriculture.

(m) "Value" means—

(1) with respect to excess defense articles, the gross cost incurred by the United States Government in repairing, rehabilitating, or modifying such articles;

(2) with respect to nonexcess defense articles delivered from inventory to countries or international organizations as grant assistance under this Act, the standard price in effect at the time such articles are dropped from inventory by the supplying agency. Such price shall be the same standard price used for transfers or sales of such articles in or between the Armed Forces of the United States Government, or, where such articles are not transferred or sold in or between the Armed Forces of the United States, the gross cost to the United States Government adjusted as appropriate for condition and market value; and

(3) with respect to nonexcess defense articles delivered from new procurement to countries or international organizations as grant assistance under this Act, the contract or production costs of such articles.

Military assistance programs and orders shall be based upon the best estimates of stock status and prevailing prices; reimbursements to the supplying agency shall be made on the basis of the stock status and prices determined pursuant to this section. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the Secretary of Defense may prescribe regulations authorizing reimbursements to the supplying agency based on negotiated prices for aircraft, vessels, plant equipment, and such other major items as he may specify: Provided, That such articles are not excess at the time such prices are negotiated: Provided further, That such prices are negotiated at the time firm orders are placed with the supplying agency by the military assistance program.
